

IIPM to conduct MBA programme

Bhubaneswar: Indian Institute for Production Management (IIPM), a consultancy and training institute in Sundargarh district, on Wednesday announced its decision to launch an executive MBA programme as part of its silver jubilee celebrations.

IIPM director M R Nayak at a press conference held here said the executive MBA course would be helpful to persons already working in the corporate field. "A lot of industries now are demanding executive MBA student and in the near future many more industries are going to be established in the state, so the demand is going to increase," he said.

Nayak said the institute conducts training programmes in the areas of maintenance and manufacturing, condition monitoring services, consultancies in Total Productivity Maintenance (TPM) and Reliability Centered Maintenance (RCM) and other educational services. There are over 100 teaching and non-teaching staffs in the institute. The main office is at Kansbahal situated on the outskirts of Rourkela. TNN
